Cultural Safety in Maternity Care

About the Webinar

What you will learn about:

- The aim of the presentation is for participants to gain an understanding of cultural safety from an Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander perspective; and
- To identify ways to support Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander women, their families and communities. This will also assist with supporting Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander midwives and midwifery students.

About the Presenters

The webinar is presented by Angela Coe and Leona McGrath, from The Congress of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Nurses and Midwives (CATSINaM), which is the peak representative body for Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander nurses and midwives in Australia. CATSINaM's primary function is to 'implement strategies to embed Cultural Safety in health care and education as well as the recruitment and retention of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander People into nursing and midwifery'.
